Review: Gives Kao Kang's report to the Senior Cadre Conference of the Northeast Bureau, Chinese Communist Party, on 10 January 1952. Kao Kang warns the party of encroachment by the bourgeoisie, and by left-wing deviationists in state and private industries. He notes the negative attitude of peasants in the rural areas who refuse to support more fully the mutual aid and cooperative movement. His report, oriented to the Three Antis and Five Antis Movements, discusses corruption, tax evasion, and theft of state property. Reviews briefly the economic problems facing the Northeast Administrative Area at the beginning of 1952.
